

SEVENTY DASHED TO DEATH LIKE RATS IN A TRAP

Train Plunges From Trestle in N. J.

PASSENGERS DROWN IN CARS

Failure of Rails of Draw- bridge to Lock Cause of Shocking Disaster

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 29.—It is estimated this morning that sixty-six are dead and forty injured in the Thoroughfare bridge wreck.

Divers are working.
At noon it is estimated eighty are dead. Nearly sixty bodies have been recovered.

As the bodies are removed they are held for identification. The effects are placed in numbered packages, corresponding with numbers on the bodies.

Exhausted, the divers were forced to give up at daybreak and others are going down.

The bridge was unable to withstand the weight of the sunken cars when placed on derricks while trying to lift them out.

Effort to raise the cars has been abandoned and energy is bent toward recovering the bodies.

When all are removed the cars will be broken up and dragged ashore.
Coast guards have been ordered to keep a lookout for bodies, possibly washed to sea.

Dead Number Seventy

Conductor Curtis today says there were ninety-five passengers on the train. Twenty-five have been found living, so there could not be more than seventy dead.

Fifty-nine bodies were recovered to-day this afternoon.
It is charged the interlocking device was faulty and it is alleged the road officials knew it.

A car was raised but there were no bodies in it, though a number floated when the car was pulled out. It is supposed many floated out the windows and were carried to sea.

Tracks Didn't Lock

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 29.—Through the failure of the rails to lock properly after the draw was closed after permitting the passage of a yacht eighty passengers were drowned, locked in three vestibule coaches of a Pennsylvania railroad electric train, which left Camden yesterday afternoon. There were no guard rails along the trestle to prevent such accidents.

Some of the Dead

Bodies recovered and identified are:
FRANK DESACESERO, Philadelphia.

JON B. DEMPSEY, boss car cleaner, Camden, N. J.

P. ANGURSO, Italian bandsman, Camden, N. J.

WALTER SCOTT, motorman of train, Atlantic City.

MRS. THEODORE LAWRENCE, Philadelphia.

MRS. WALTER BRADISH, Eastport, Me.

P. ANGRSE, Philadelphia.

JAMES PAUL DEMPSEY AND WIFE, Camden, N. J.

FRANK MUNROE AND WIFE, Camden, N. J.

MRS. WOLFORD, Camden, N. J.

A score or more who were injured and rescued, were placed on board the train dispatched to the scene of the disaster from this end of the line, and they were brought to hospitals here.

About twenty men of the Royal Artillery band, who were to open an engagement at Young's pier, were in the last car and most of them were killed. Manager Joseph Devito and

HEAR THUG CASE AFTER ELECTION

Attorneys not Ready for Hearing so Case Goes Over to Nov. 14

Unprepared to prosecute the case against "Baldie" Walter Fisher and "Cookie" Edward Crowley, charged with assault upon W. E. Barber with intent to do great bodily harm, District Attorney Otto Bosshard asked today that the hearing be put over until Wednesday. Attorney Higbee, Jr., for the defendants, asserted that he had work in circuit court and could not try the case then. The court suggested adjournment two days more, but Attorney Higbee, Jr., for the defense again claimed to have other work which would take his time, so it was arranged to hold the hearing Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 10 a. m.

This delays the hearing of the case, the evidence at which would bring all the details of the vicious assault to public knowledge until after election day.

OBSERVATORY OFF TILL SPRING

Construction of the new La Crosse weather observatory will not be started until next spring, due to the delay in adjusting the title to the property, the southwest corner of Fifth and Cass streets. The first official information of the plans of the weather bureau was given out today by Congressman Esch, who has received a letter from Willis L. Moore, chief of the department.

The work will be started in the spring. The contracts will be let during the winter months that everything will be in readiness.

The following letter from Mr. Moore, the first official announcement in reply to a letter from Congressman Esch relative to plans explains the action of the department. The letter is dated Oct. 22.

"In regard to your letter of Oct. 17, 1906, I have the honor to state that we should like to construct the foundation for the weather observatory building in La Crosse this fall, but we have been unavoidably delayed in regard to the title of the ground, so that we will be unable to begin work until early next spring. We have to advertise for bidders, and wait a reasonable time for estimates to be submitted. Before this can be done and arrangements made for the contract, cold weather will have set in. I believe, therefore, that it will be better for us to get everything in readiness for beginning active work as soon as the weather will permit in the spring."

"KATZENJAMMER" CASTLE

SALEM JOURNAL SHOWS 'EM UP

Chronicle's Republicanism is a Label, and as Used, is a Disgrace

The West Salem Nonpareil-Journal, one of the republican papers that has the sand and sense to oppose Harry Palmer for sheriff, does not take kindly to advice and criticism from a new and always mercenary party convert, known as The Morning Laughing Stock, alias The Daily Prescription Blank, alias, Etc., Etc. It adds to the conviction, created by Publisher Gessler's recent withering broadside, that it is a mistake to throw mud at a man just because his town is not as big as some other fellow's town. Mr. Trimball seems to have found a soft spot on the Dope Sheet's anatomy with such damaging results that many doses of your excellent remedy, Etc., will be required to heal the bruise. He says:

"In reading the editorial columns of the La Crosse Chronicle a person might easily get the impression that there is abroad in this steady going county crime more offensive to the republic than was heresy to the church of the middle ages. A number of the voters, humble and not so humble, have so far forgotten their citizenship as to allow considerations of mind and morals to move their choice in the matter of one county office outside the lines of their own party. O tempora, O mores?"

"Whence the wail? One Palmer, alderman, wielder of the gad-stick on the back stretch, distributor of avuncular funds among bi-partisan bar flies has recently accomplished through his methods and some democratic shrewdness the republican nomination for sheriff. Many good republicans, not liking some of the details and totally disapproving the ensemble, have transferred their allegiance to Mr. Burns, a democrat and a man who is a man. In the eyes of the Chronicle this is the kind of party disloyalty that constitutes a crime."

"What pray, is the Chronicle doing, by its advocacy of Palmer, for the republican party? Is an attempt to subvert the interests of a recently converted democrat in the face of his unfitness for the office he seeks, by the use of all that is artificial in the party, is such an attempt good republicanism? Does it help the party among such intelligent men as the voters of La Crosse county? As a matter of sentiment, and the Chronicle apparently wishes to make it a matter of sentiment, could such a course have won the approval of Lincoln."

BOATS JAMMED AGAINST ROCKS

Heavy Wind Does Damage to Craft Along River Front

Three boats were dashed about the river by the stiff wind Saturday afternoon when the David Tipton, the large government steamer, attempted to leave port for down river with the government dredge.

The wind from the northwest caught the big boat in the middle of the stream and dashed it toward the levee shore. The government steamer Elsie was caught in the whirl while the little packet Jap was crowded against the shore onto the levee.

When the wind died down the boats again tied up awaiting a more favorable opportunity to leave port. The Elsie was damaged slightly while the David Tipton received no serious injury.

The Tipton made the attempt to leave port while during a calm, but the wind arose and caught the big dredge and steamer and drove them back. When another opportunity offered, after the wind died down, the Tipton and dredge left for Guttenberg, Ia., where the fleet will be kept busy until the close of navigation.

MYSTERY BAFFLES LA CROSSE PEOPLE

A great mystery is puzzling the people of La Crosse. It is walked around by the mystic name, "The Demateos." A thousand people daily are trying to unravel it.

The Demateos are the sensation at the Unique theater this week. Their wonderful feats whether of legerdemain or black art, whether the product of occult powers or inimitable trickery, are of a most remarkable character. Demateo is one of the niftiest performers in the line of hand-cuff manipulation, etc., in the business, but the great feature of his act is that in which he places his wife in a mail sack, has it securely locked and examined by members of the audience and gets her out of the bag within forty seconds without unlocking it. Crowds are studying the performance and attempting to solve the mystery.

At two performances this week Manager Michinsky will give away a gold watch to patrons of the house.

"BLACKIE" CAM- ERON ARRESTED

Riverman Wanted for Stab- bing Affray in Hands of the Law

William Cameron, alias "Blackie" Cameron, wanted by the La Crosse police for assault with intent to commit murder, was arrested by the Rock Island, Ill., police Saturday night and Chief Byrne notified. Sheriff Houghton left at noon yesterday to bring the prisoner home to stand trial.

Cameron assaulted Matt Elsen, 1643 Avon street, in the Green Tree saloon, 218 North Front street, on Sept. 21. A knife was used in the assault, Elsen receiving two severe slashes, one in the face and another in the neck. Cameron fled across the river into Minnesota immediately after the assault.

For the last six weeks he has eluded the police of the river cities. From descriptions sent out by the La Crosse police, the Rock Island department was able to identify Cameron. His arrest quickly followed and Sheriff Houghton left to bring the prisoner back. The sheriff is expected at 6 o'clock tonight on the Burlington with the prisoner.

Cameron is known to the La Crosse police as a "bad man." His life, spent on the river, has hardened him. He has a police record.

FREDERICK BRIE- BACK IS AT REST

One of the largest funerals in a number of months marked the final rites over the remains of Frederick Briebach, Sr., which was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 325 North Ninth street. Rev. Paul Ebinger of the German Reform church preached the funeral oration. The services were simple, but beautiful and impressive.

The pallbearers were J. M. Holley, Frank Bigelow, August Lantz, A. Platz, M. Gunther and F. Freehoff, all old friends of the deceased. Interment was made at Oak Grove, Fessler & Dahl being in charge.

Mrs. August Briebach, a niece of the deceased, of Austin, Minn., attended the funeral.

WEDDING PARTY

The marriage of Miss Jennie French daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. French, 927 Ferry street, and Frank Sturz, took place Thursday evening at the residence of her parents. Miss Edith Kessler was maid of honor and John Cheworsky was best man. The bride wore a gown of white silk and carried bride's roses. The bride who is well known in this city, received many handsome presents from her numerous friends.

EVASIVE ON HER CONDITION

People Must Infer, However, Something is Wrong if She is Guarded

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 29.—Prodded to action by the Sunday story that Mrs. Eddy is no longer head of the Christian Science church, but a mere puppet in the hands of designing schemers, those nearest the aged woman today come to the front with statements in rebuttal.

Lewis Strang, Mrs. Eddy's assistant secretary, tells how he introduced the two reporters, seeking the truth about Mrs. Eddy's condition, and Prof. Kent, to Mrs. Eddy. He says after the interview, which was brief on account of the pressure of business, each of the men expressed surprise at the remarkably good physical and mental appearance of Mrs. Eddy.

Other leaders of the church are stirred to emphatic denials.

Only Interested Denials
CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 29.—The only denials of Mrs. Mary Eddy's illness come from persons interested in exploding the sensation.

Newspapermen are refused admittance to Mrs. Eddy's presence.

Must Be Square

The attitude of evasion and desire to belud the facts expressed by Mrs. Eddy's managers will avail nothing hereafter. The press of the United States will be permitted to see and talk to the leader or the inference must be drawn that her associates are unable to permit her to appear in public again.

A Scripps-McRae reporter this morning talked to Gen. Streeter, the woman's attorney. He was courteous, but like all having personal relations, was evasive. He declared the story of cancer nonsense.

NYE IS NOT CHAIRMAN

Chairman John E. McConnell of the republican county committee announces this morning that a slight mistake was made in the report of the democratic meeting at West Salem Friday night. It was stated that F. H. A. Nye, who introduced the speakers was republican village chairman, when W. A. Bradley is chairman of the village organization. Mr. Nye is known as an independent in politics, says Mr. McConnell.

CHICAGO HORSE SHOW

(Tribune Special Service.)
CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 29.—Chicago's seventh annual horse show is on, and during the remainder of this week the aristocratic equine will reign supreme. The worn-out phrase of "bigger and better than ever before" may truthfully be applied to the present exhibition in which the entries are more numerous and of a higher class than in previous years. Southern breeders are especially well represented this year, while many of the foremost stables in the east have sent their blue ribbon horses to capture the prizes and trophies. From the indications on this, the opening day, the show will be a big success from the viewpoint both of society and the horse lover. The polo ponies are especially in evidence this year, and the four-in-hands, tandems, hunters, jumpers and light harness classes are all well filled.

THURSDAY'S CONCERT

BAILLANT EVENT

The concert which was given in the Baptist church Thursday evening was a decidedly artistic event. Although the audience was small it made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers. Miss Shade is a great artist. Her first three numbers, a Chopin group, were well received and elicited much applause. Her second numbers, "Album Leaves" and "March of the Dwarfs" by Grieg, were given magnificently and Miss Shade was forced to respond to an encore. But it remained for the three last numbers, "Study" by MacDowell, "Die Soreley" and "Nightingale" by Sietz to fairly take the audience by storm. Her work in the "Nightingale" was the best ever heard in La Crosse. Mrs. Hartman has a sympathetic mezzo soprano voice, which charmed the audience. Perhaps her "Aria" from "Merodiade" was the favorite, and she gave us an encore "Irish Folk Song." Mr. Kerr, the baritone, received an enthusiastic reception when he stepped upon the stage and sang for his first number, "Recitative and Aria" from Tannhauser, and as an encore, "Dreamy Days." His second group, consisting of "My Star" by Beach and "Faith" by Chadwick was rapturously applauded and in the latter song Mr. Kerr did the best work of the evening. His voice is of a rare and exquisite quality and he sings with such delicacy and at the same time such power that he entirely satisfies his audience. Should they ever return to La Crosse they will be assured of a large audience.

Plunges Into River
The train jumped the tracks 100 feet from the beginning of the long trestle, which covers a mile or more and kept to the bridge for 200 feet.

Then the forward car broke through the guard rail and plunged into twenty feet of water. The other two cars followed, the rear end of the rear car impaling itself on the abutment of the draw. This held the door out of water, and through this opening twenty or more persons were saved.

The scene of the accident was the trestle bridge across the so-called "Beach thoroughfare," a mile from here.

Not a single occupant of either of the first two cars had the slightest opportunity to escape and some of those in the last car who did manage to preserve their lives had almost miraculous experiences.

Jumped Through Window
Conductor Curtis of the train was sitting on the second seat from the forward end. When he felt the jar as the wheels left the rails he kicked the glass out of the window, and as the car went over jumped, pulling with him his seat mate, a negro.

They landed in the water and were picked up by boatmen who chanced to be only a short distance away when the train jumped the trestle.

In less than thirty minutes after the speeding electric train had plunged from the trestle more than 1,000 people were at the scene of the disaster.

WM. J. FRIES A STRONG CANDIDATE

William J. Fries, democratic candidate for clerk of court, is attracting considerable attention by the vigor and intelligence he is displaying in his campaign for that office. His friends are claiming and even his opponents are conceding that he will carry the city of La Crosse by a splendid majority. That he will make a strong showing in the county is confidently expected, and there seems a strong likelihood that he will be able to win out on election day by a safe majority.

Biography

William J. Fries was born in the city of La Crosse on July 25, 1876. His entire life has been spent in this city. He secured his education in the public schools and the La Crosse high school, and acquitted himself with more than ordinary credit. On July 22, 1890 he entered the insurance business in the employ of E. W. Krebs, and his efficiency was soon demonstrated. He has followed this business with unvarying success. When Mr. Krebs sold out to Kurtenacker & Niebuhr, Mr. Fries continued to represent them. In 1897 Mr. Fries embarked in the insurance business for himself, and since that time he has maintained an office in the Funk building over the Continental on the corner of Fourth and Pearl streets. His business has grown and prospered and he is known as one of the most reliable and aggressive insurance men in this city.

WILLIAM J. FRIES

Democratic Candidate for Clerk of the Court.

It is not necessary to mention any particular men or institutions who will be willing to vouch for Mr. Fries. La Crosse is his home city and he has so conducted himself and his affairs as to be able to say: "Ask any business man in the city of La Crosse about me."

Mr. Fries in his younger days became devoted to music and he is well known in musical circles about the city. He possesses a pleasing personality, and has a capacity for making and retaining warm personal friendships. His popularity is firmly established and in his campaign for public office he is supported by a host of loyal friends.

HIRAM TRACY, AGED INEBRIATE FOUND DEAD IN BED

North Side Youth Goes Into Loft to Put Down Hay and Finds Corpse of Aged North Side Man

When Joseph Wachter, son of the ice dealer, at 601 Mill street went out into the hay barn at 6:45 yesterday morning he was startled by suddenly stumbling over a man in the hay-loft, where he went to put down some hay for the cows.

It was still dusk and some hay was over the man's face so he could not be recognized.

He removed the hay and found it to be Hiram Tracy, an old man, 62 years of age, who had been assisting in chores there at times.

He tried to arouse the apparently slumbering man but without avail, and then began to get alarmed and thought something must be wrong, so he called Dr. C. W. Luck, who, upon examining the person pronounced him dead. His body was still warm.

County Coroner Cronon was called and after taking in view all circumstances decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

An empty whisky bottle was found upon his person and the man appeared as though he must have been intoxicated for some time. Death was pronounced due to alcoholism and want of care.

The body was removed to the Dwyer undertaking rooms.

Deceased was born in New York state. Robert Tracy, a son, resides at the rear of 321 Caledonia street, and the funeral will be held from there at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon with interment in the Campbell cemetery.

BOX CARS DERAILED AT BANGOR

About three o'clock Saturday afternoon several box cars jumped the track at Bangor and blocked the right of way for several hours.

Passenger train No. 5 went around by way of the North Western Road, and up to noon yesterday all of the wreck had not been picked up, although the track had been cleared so that other trains were not delayed.

The wrecking crew went out from the north side.

MRS. PITTINGER DEAD

Mrs. Sophia Francis Pittinger, wife of Elmer Pittinger of 2023 Berlin street died at 2:45 this morning, death resulting from tuberculosis with which she had been ill for some time.

Deceased was 41 years of age and is survived by a husband and five children.

Mrs. Pittinger was formerly Miss Sophia Schweigert, whose father will be well remembered as the proprietor of a hotel which was operated at 901 Mill street in the early lumber days.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence with interment in the Campbell cemetery.

FUNERAL OF F. A. BATES

The funeral of Fred A. Bates, the veteran fireman of the Milwaukee road who passed away at his home at 713 Caledonia street, Friday afternoon took place this afternoon from the residence, Rev. J. W. Turner of the North Presbyterian church officiating, and Wm. Dwyer in charge with interment in the Oak Grove cemetery.

A large number of relatives and fellow trainmen attended the services and accompanied their old comrade to his final resting place.

DO NOT BE A BURDEN.

O. T. Erhart Gives Some Good Advice to Readers of The Tribune.

A weak stomach and its resulting ills are not natural. With proper care and the use of Mi-o-na stomach tablets, the very worst cases of indigestion or stomach trouble can be completely cured.

It is a sin to deprive oneself of enjoyment in life and become a burden to others through indigestion.

The backaches, headaches, distress after eating, loss of appetite, gulping up of undigested food and gases are not natural. Mi-o-na stomach tablets used for a few days before meals will so strengthen the digestive organs that you can eat anything you want without fear of distress or resulting sickness.

The directions for taking Mi-o-na emphasize the difference between this remedy and the ordinary medicine that is given for indigestion. Mi-o-na is to be used before meals, strengthening the digestive system for the food which is to be eaten, while the ordinary remedy is taken after meals, and simply digests the food without eye, in case it does not cure. A 50-cent box of Mi-o-na will do more real good than a dozen packages of the ordinary remedies sold for indigestion. Then, too, it costs nothing unless it cures.

NEWS FORECAST OF THE COMING WEEK

(Special Tribune Service.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—The final stage of the political campaign of 1906 began today and during the ensuing six days the politicians will be kept busy with the wind-up. Public interest will center chiefly, of course, in the contest in New York, where Mr. Hearst promises a spectacular finish to his whirlwind campaign. It will be a strenuous week likewise for the republicans, who will have Secretary Root, Secretary Shaw and other leaders of national fame in the state to help out Mr. Hughes, the gubernatorial candidate. The campaign will be brought to a spectacular close Saturday night with rousing meetings of both parties in Greater New York.

Though most interest is taken in the New York contest, the close of the campaign in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Kansas and Colorado will attract attention. In each of these states the contest this year is felt to be of more than ordinary interest.

Recent dispatches from Russia indicate that some uneasiness is felt in official circles regarding the outcome of the proposed celebrations on Tuesday next, which is the anniversary of the imperial manifesto granting a measure of self-government to the people. It is feared that a great strike may be inaugurated on that day as a result of popular discontent.

The seventh biennial convention of the National Luther League will begin Tuesday at Canton, Ohio, to continue in session three days.

DEDICATE PEOPLE'S PALACE

(Special Tribune Service.)

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 29.—The Salvation Army in New England saw the culmination of years of effort and industry yesterday with the dedication of the "People's Palace" in this city. The palace is five stories in height and cost $250,000. Besides serving as executive headquarters for the organization of New England, the building is in part a workingman's hotel, with nearly 300 guest rooms. The building houses also a gymnasium, swimming pool, employment bureau, free dispensary, reading rooms and restaurant. The dedicatory exercises occupied the entire afternoon and evening. Col. William Evans, provincial officer for New England, was master of ceremonies, and Miss Eva Booth, commander of the forces in America, delivered the principal addresses.

GOETHAM'S NEWEST HOTEL

(Special Tribune Service.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The newest Astor hostelry, the Hotel Knickerbocker, at 42nd street and Broadway, opened its doors to the public this week. The new hotel, which, like the Hotel Astor, the Waldorf-Astoria and several others, is owned by the Astor family, takes rank with the best in Gotham. The structure is fifteen stories in height, with nearly 600 rooms, 400 of them with baths. On the ground floor, with its main lobby and office, is a nine-foot statue of Father Knickerbocker. From the lobby opens the main dining room, the flower room and the men's cafe. The lower room is said to be the first of its kind in hotel history, and it is an evolution of the palm room. Fresh flowers cut and growing are heaped about, and an immense painting entitled "The Masque of Flora," confronts the visitor.

VOTE FOR GOOD MEN

(R. B. Gelatt in Leader-Press Oct. 28, 1904.)

"THE CITIZEN SHOULD DIVEST HIMSELF OF PARTISAN BIAS SO FAR AS HE IS ABLE AND VOTE FOR COUNTY OFFICERS ON THE GROUNDS OF THE QUALIFICATIONS OF THE CANDIDATES FOR THOSE OFFICES. THE MORAL STANDING, THE HABITS, SUCCESS OR FAILURE he has shown in his own business and the SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS for the office sought ought to be weighed in the case of each candidate. This takes time but it is no light matter to assist in the selection of public officers and EVERY CITIZEN OWES IT TO THE PUBLIC TO DO IT INTELLIGENTLY."

WHAT "BILL" DUNCAN SAID

It is announced that "Bill" Duncan is "out" for Harry Palmer. Mr. Duncan is quoted in a morning paper as being, "firm in the belief that the entire county ticket will be elected." He is said by this paper to have said the republican candidate for sheriff should be supported by every republican, "as a stinging rebuke to the democrats who are trying to use the republicans for their own ends."

That is not a good reason for electing a man for sheriff, and we do not think Mr. Duncan said any such thing. We do not believe Mr. Duncan is the sort of man who believes that, "the democrats nominated Palmer, and we'll cram 'im down their throats." We do not believe he is the sort of man who would want to saddle the 50,000 people of this county with an unsatisfactory official to "get even" with not more than 300 Palmer democrats who left their own party to help out an old pal. Most republicans are willing to concede that ninety per cent of the democrats who voted for Palmer in the primaries are for him and will vote for him in the general election. If the policy of "cramming" that sort of a candidate "down the throats" of the people of this county to "get even" with a few democrats of a certain sort were pursued, republicans would have to "cram" some Palmer-like candidate "down their throats" every two years. The democrats who voted for Palmer want him "crammed down their throats." Intelligent people will object to thus putting it in the power of a small crowd of a certain element to dictate the nomination and election of a republican candidate for sheriff. It is a game that will be played again two years from now, if it wins this time. There is enough of that element from both parties combined to nominate their candidate every shot, providing the respectable vote is split up between several candidates, as it is pretty certain to be. The only way to stop it is to prove that such men are foolish to seek nomination because they cannot be elected.

Mr. Duncan knows a few things. He knows the opinion he had of Palmer in the pre-primary campaign. He knows what the element of his party that constitute his friends and his support thought of Palmer then. He knows that Palmer who was The Great Impossible then is the same Palmer who is running now. He knows that the stock in trade of the Palmers was to tell that he, Duncan, was blind, that he couldn't tell his best friend across the street, and how could he catch a thief; that he had held the office and got away with thousands of dollars, and that he had squandered it in drink and riotous living and now had no right to ask the voters for another slice.

But Mr. Duncan, wisely, is looking out for the future. He made a magnificent run, and was beaten by a close margin by Palmer's circus campaign. He is eligible to the office two years from now. The results last time proved to him that, barring another Palmer affair, he can get the nomination the next time. To do that he must be a consistent party man. So he is doing what any intelligent man would do under those circumstances. He is like a lot of other fellows who are on records as dead against Palmer—he is keeping his record clear by being, "for the ticket from top to bottom." He is probably wise enough to secretly hope that Palmer will be overwhelmingly defeated as a rebuke to a low political expedition that defeated his well won candidacy this year and if successful now may be duplicated and cause his defeat again two years later.

Bill Duncan is no "rube." His record will bear the light. He is not of the Palmer stripe. He will not insult his own manhood and intelligence by repudiating his declarations for decency in politics. He stands now where he stood before the primaries. But as a republican who may seek the support of the republican party in the near future he is keeping his record right with the handy non-committal declaration that he is, "for the ticket from top to bottom."

WING REPUDIATES PALMER

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 5, 1906.
Bangor, Wis.

Frank B. Gesler, Esq.

Dear Gesler:

I want to commend the stand you and Trimbel of West Salem have taken on the candidate for sheriff.

There is no party obligation so strong as the MORAL OBLIGATION TO REFUSE TO VOTE FOR A CANDIDATE ON YOUR TICKET IF YOU KNOW HE IS INTELLECTUALLY AND MORALLY UNFIT FOR ANY OFFICE TO WHICH HE ASPIRES; and when he has secured the nomination by soliciting democrats to vote in republican caucuses, it is more than ever IMPORTANT TO TEACH A LESSON THAT WILL NOT BE FORGOTTEN BY FUTURE CANDIDATES.

The republican candidate expects to get enough democratic votes to elect him, as he did to nominate him, but if the decent republicans of La Crosse county do their duty, there will not be democrats enough—of HIS kind—to do any harm.

Yours truly,

E. M. WING.

A. J. PHILIPS, REPUBLICAN, AGAINST PALMER

West Salem, Wis., Oct. 3, 1906.

Dear Mr. Gesler:

I desire to congratulate you on your stand on the sheriff question. Let the Chronicle howl. YOU VOICE THE SENTIMENT OF THE BETTER CLASS of voters.

Stick to it, for YOU ARE RIGHT. Have your paper independent in reality as well as name.

Yours truly,

A. J. PHILIPS.

LA CROSSE IS DOING THESE THINGS

An exchange offers merchants seeking to check the mail-order nuisance the following advice:

In helping the local editor, do not let yourself think that you are playing the part of a good samaritan to him. It may be that he has declined more than one offer of advertising from retail mail order houses, any one of which would have brought him more than all the merchants in town pay him in months—and with more or less grumbling at that.

Think of him only as an influential means through which to a large number of your customers you can have expressed facts and opinions of benefit to you, but which would lack weight coming from yourself.

For your own sake do all you can to build up—as near to you as possible—a local paper of wide circulation and great influence. And then be "on the right side" of its editor to the extent that will enable you to secure publication of such reading matter as follows: (Here follows an effective argument to the public against patronizing mail-order houses.)

That is what La Crosse merchants have been doing. They are giving The Tribune liberal support. For every advertisement extolling their wares they give The Tribune, this paper is giving them free advertisement in the form of published arguments to their patrons advising them to buy at home and ignore mail-order houses. It is reciprocal. The merchants are scratching our backs and we are scratching their backs. Of all La Crosse papers The Tribune has been the pioneer in work against mail-order encroachments. It is prepared to show that during the past twelve months it has contributed twenty columns of its space for every column contributed by its two daily competitors combined. It proposes to continue this work, and it believes firmly that by intelligent co-operation of this paper with the merchants the mail-order business done in La Crosse county will shortly be reduced to an inconsiderable quantity.

Mr. Gelatt, chief exploiter of H. Palmer, says that when the Palmer thugs who assaulted W. E. Barber were arranging their bail was furnished by a man "who happened to be present." It was George Holzammer, the saloonkeeper in whose place the plan to "do up" Mr. Barber was conceived and consummated. Yes, George just "happened" to be present.

Dog Palmer writes his paper that he was not a party to the Fischer assault. After telling everybody in the city that he would "get" Barber, his story is worth just as much as it could be worth were there no other evidence regarding the matter. And say, if you read it you will bet your life Harry never wrote it at all.

"The boys," says the Evening Laughing Stock, referring to the appearance of the Palmer thugs in court. Neither of the "boys" is under 28 years of age, and at least one of them has a police record. One of them, "cock" Crowley, is hired by Palmer.

Because a man of democratic antecedents appropriates to himself the republican party label, makes a circus and dive campaign and wins out in a republican primary election, is no valid reason why good republicans should support him in preference to a clean, capable man like Chris J. Burns. "Neither ethics" or party regularity should obtain in a case like this campaign, but with two democrats running, why not choose the better man—genuine democrat though he be—and vote for Chris J. Burns.—Bangor Independent.

The country doctor who has to drive for miles and miles in all kinds of weather, at all times of the day and night, is not to be envied.

They get personal experience as well as experience from others.

JUST LIFE

An Old Picture

Eyes so pleading, tender, yearning,
Looking askance, moist as dew,
Eyes that you would ne'er want turning
—ing

Their loved look on one but you.

True they are but done on paper,
Brought to life by acids' burn,
Still you trim the flick'ring taper,
Hold it close, the more to learn.

Science, learning, fame and riches,
May have been your earthly fare,
Still the lip, the eyelid twitches,
There is something yet—somewhere.

Then you turn to that old picture,
Dust the face upon your sleeve—
In it there is that elixir
That makes men think—and believe.

After November 6 Harry will know how the Dutchman felt who came home late one night, placed the lamp in bed, and blew himself out of the

Wanted—One pair Ralston Health shoes, size 7x11, to replace a pair worn out looking for people who have not subscribed for The Tribune. Also damages for one neck-tie frayed at the ends while escaping from a Palmer slugger.

A. Voter.

P. S.—If the above claim is not settled within fifteen years I will vote for Harry.

Dear Voter—As you have shown your forethought and good sense in wearing "health" shoes, we would suggest you are now equipped to place your hoof where it will do the most good on the next Palmer slugger who attacks you, without danger of infection.

Dear Life:

I would like to ask if Harry and "Baldie" will live at de jail if Harry is elected; also what will become of de livery business.

"Interested."

Dear "Interested"—We are uncertain as to Harry, but "Baldie" may possibly live at the jail for a while whether Harry is elected or not. As to de livery, it is to be hoped "de livery" won't be at the jail.

It's pretty certain Harry didn't write the denial of his connection with last week's thuggery himself.

"Wild oats" are to be expected of a "rollicking" young fellow; but not in the years of his prime maturity.

"Young" Roland B. Gelatt sowed his wild oats in the "Central" all right; and probably has wished once for every oat that he hadn't.

A Puzzle.

Ask a friend to open a book at random and select and mark any word within the first ten lines and within the tenth from the end of the line. Now, letting your friend do the figuring, proceed to discover through the "magic of numbers" the location of the word selected. Ask him to double the number of the page and multiply the sum by 5 and then add 20. Then ask him to add the number of the line. Then to that add 5 and multiply the sum by 10. To the answer add the number of the word in the line. Subtract from the sum 250 and let him tell you the result. You will be able to tell him the page chosen, the number of the line and the number of the word in the line, for the remainder will indicate in the unit column the number of the word, in the tens column the number of the line and the remaining figures the number of the page. To give an illustration of this, suppose your friend selects the sixth word of the sixth line on page 33. He would work it out in this fashion: Thirty-three multiplied by 2 equals 66, multiplied by 5 equals 330, add 20 equals 350; to this add 6, the number of the line, and 5, making 361, multiply by 10, and you get 3610; add 6, the number of the word in the line, and then subtract 250, and the answer will be 3366. The first two figures, 33, will be the number of the page, the next figure the number of the line and the last figure the number of the word.—Philadelphia Ledger.

W. R. C. SAYS M'KINLEY POST TOOK THEIR MONEY

Sent Their Flags and Charter Away and Locked Their Doors, Trying to Break up Organization

The committee of the W. R. C. of the William McKinley post, G. A. R. hands in the following communication in reply to attacks upon the corps by the McKinley post members. The report is signed by five women of the organization, headed by its new president:

The Editor of The Tribune:

Having read an article in Saturday morning's paper about trouble in the McKinley Women's Relief Corps. It is not the Corps but the Post that is in trouble. The trouble began last June when the Post members between themselves had differences with their comrades. Their commander was illegally ousted from his office and in order to avenge themselves on one member of the Post they without our authority or knowledge, sent back to that comrade an organ which his wife, now deceased, gave to the ladies of the W. R. C. to her memory. Not satisfied with that the Post has tried in every way to annoy us and interfere with our work by trying to lock us out of our lodge rooms which they have no right to do; also by secretly removing our charter, books, flags and all our other belongings and sending them into headquarters in order to break up our corps and to get our money which they did by demanding it of our treasurer without our knowledge or consent. We then wrote to headquarters letting them know how we had been treated. They immediately sent back our things and the department president, Mrs. Bleyer, and her secretary, Mrs. Bell, came last Wednesday to our lodge and installed the new president, Mrs. Broderick. We were not locked out of the court house, but we were locked in for a short time but we got out of that difficulty the same as we have out of every other one which has been put upon us when our ladies by instructions from our department president went and demanded our money from the Post. They were not inclined to give it back to us and we then gave them till noon next day to do so, when Mr. Berry, treasurer of the Post turned it over to us and we can assure the public we can and will put it to better use than the Post could, as they have no right whatever with our money which we have worked hard for.

W. R. C. Committee,
Mm. McKinley Post.

A Houthmaker is well known in the bottling business, having had long experience through his association of fifteen years with the La Crosse Bottling Works. He is known as a proficient operator from the technical standpoint and has a flattering standing as a progressive business man.

Bitzer Brothers have been one of the most widely known and long established grocery firms in the city. They began business in La Crosse twenty years ago and have conducted an up-to-date, clean and popular grocery store on the corner of Eighth and Division streets.

The new firm is comprised entirely of highly reputable, progressive and popular business men whose long known integrity and business acumen gives the firm the highest standing. That they will succeed in maintaining a splendid business establishment which will be a credit to the city is the expectations of the La Crosse public.

Notice

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned that I have sold out the La Crosse Bottling works to Houthmaker & Bitzer Bros., and I hereby thank the public for the patronage given me for the past years and hoping that the same courtesy be shown to my successors.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned have purchased the La Crosse Bottling works formerly owned by Warninger & Houthmaker, but for the past two years owned and managed by George H. Warninger. Having had fifteen years' experience by A. Houthmaker in the manufacturing of nonintoxicating drinks it is our desire to keep up the reputation which the La Crosse Bottling works has maintained for the past sixteen years and soliciting the same patronage shown this firm during these years.

AT THE THEATERS

ELECTION NOTICE

It is very seldom we get a repertoire company that is so well balanced in every way as is the famous Dalrymple company, which opens an engagement of five nights commencing tonight at the La Crosse theater. The company is composed of twenty people and includes an excellent uniformed band and orchestra. Miss Mina Griffin, the leading lady, is a woman of magnetism and is spoken very highly of by critics wherever the company has been.

"The Free Lance"

The management of the La Crosse theater announces an extraordinarily attractive even tomorrow night. A new comic opera by John Philip Sousa is always a matter of interest to the American public, so when we are promised the best and most stirring composition that has even been evolved by the American "march king" that much hackneyed expression in theatrical parlance "a notable event" it is apt to be justified upon the occasion of the appearance of the Sousa Opera company in the military comic opera "The Free Lance" which will be presented by Klaw & Erlanger with Joseph Cawthorn as the stellar feature of the original cast which numbers one hundred and which includes besides that inimitable comedian such well known favorites as Nella Bergen, Jeanette Lowrie, Albert Hart, George Tallman, George Schiller, Stanley Murphy and a host of others of like prominence.

Bijou's Vaudeville Scores Hit

The matinee this afternoon at this popular place of amusement was packed by the women folk and all were loud in their praise of the performance. Each and every one claimed it to be the best show of the season.

The famous Tourist Trio are really the best singing act before the public which is saying much as some excellent quartet singing has been heard here before. However, the Tourist Trio surpasses anything ever heard in La Crosse.

Buckley's trained dogs are a whole show by themselves and should be seen by every man, woman and child.

Roland Travers and company, billed as illusionists, are really wonderful and must be seen to be appreciated. Ben Fagan sings his own original parodies and tells some funny jokes which goes immensely with everybody.

Lawrence Wall pleases all with the song hit of the season, entitled "Some One Looks Good to Me," illustrated with beautiful colored slides.

The moving pictures, "Subpoena Server" and "Two Mischievous Boys" are both comic subjects and are laughable all the way through.

The Bijou should be crowded at every performance this week. Matinee tomorrow afternoon.

Plays and Players.

One more theater will be added to New York's rapidly growing list tomorrow night, when the Lincoln Square, at Sixty-eighth street and Broadway is opened with "The Love Route" a play by Edward Peple. The new house aims to present the best independent attractions obtainable at popular prices.

Lena Ashwell, the English actress, begins her New York engagement in "The Shumalite" at the Lyric theater tonight.

It is said the Shuberts are planning the erection of more independent theaters in the middle west and south. It is said that Mobile and Birmingham are among the cities that probably will receive the new playhouses in the near future.

The American tour of Forbes Robertson opens at the New Amsterdam Theater, New York, tonight. His company is composed entirely of English players. He will be supported by his wife, known on the stage as Gertrude Elliot. The principal novelty to be presented is Bernard Shaw's play, "Caesar and Cleopatra."

Cissie Loftus is appearing in vaudeville. In December she will join the Joe Webber company for a New York engagement.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK.

To the Electors of La Crosse County: Notice is hereby given that a general election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of La Crosse, on the 6th day of November, 1906, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The name of the candidate for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given opposite the title of the office, and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column.

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 27, 1906.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving this ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party should make a cross mark X under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the circle made for that purpose. A ballot so marked, and having no other mark, will be counted for all the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased or a cross mark be placed in the square under the name or at any place in the space occupied by the name or names of candidates in another column, and will be counted for any name written in lieu of one erased. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should make a cross mark under the name of each candidate he desires to vote for, or at any place within the space in which the name is printed. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are, for example, as follows:

Sample Official Ballot for General Election

If you desire to vote an entire party ticket make a cross (X) in the circle (O) under the party designation at the head of the ballot. If you desire to vote for particular persons without regard to party, mark in the square under the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote, if he be there, or write any name that you wish to vote for in the proper place.

AMNESTY MAY BE GRANTED

(Tribune Special Service.) ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—A feeling of uneasiness pervades all classes in anticipation of demonstrations expected tomorrow on the anniversary of the decree last year granting a measure of self-government to the people. It is reported that an imperial manifesto will be issued granting partial amnesty, abolishing the summary court-martial and granting to all political parties freedom to hold meetings. Meanwhile measures are being taken to prevent any disorderly demonstrations.

Entries May Yet be Made in The Tribune Popular Voting Contest

All candidates in The Tribune's great $3,000 popular voting contest are exerting every effort to win one of the prizes offered by The Tribune. The beginning of the third week finds many changes in the list. Hundreds and hundreds of votes have been cast in the last few days and some new names have forged further to the front.

The vote for the past few days has been heavy considering the short time the contest has been going and from now on it may be expected to increase daily. Tell your friends that you are out to win and that you want their votes. People help those who help themselves, and if you desire the beautiful piano, one of the free trips, a scholarship or a gold watch, you will do well to speak to your friends or give their names to the contest manager at once. The contest department will help you all it can but they cannot do it all, you must help some yourself, and if you will work in conjunction with the manager of the contest department and be guided by his advice you will have a splendid chance to get a prize.

The free trips are all more than fancy can paint and will prove a never-to-be-forgotten episode in the lives of those fortunate enough to take them; they are all to places of world-wide interest. To points visited by men and women to mark from all parts of the world. All expenses down to the smallest detail will be paid. FINAL HEAT OF HOT CAMPAIGN

(Tribune Special Service.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The present week will close one of the hardest fought campaigns the Empire State has witnessed in years. Judging from all indications the republicans are not to be the victims of overconfidence. They are working as though they had the fight of their lives upon their hands. Nothing will be left undone according to the party managers, to deal a crushing blow to Hearstism at the polls next week and to put a quietus to the political ambitions of the young New York editor.

With but six working days left before them the republicans profess to be very well satisfied with the outlook. All the reports that reach the state headquarters are sanguine, except from a few of the manufacturing centers, where Mr. Hearst has a considerable following. Chairman Woodruff says he never felt more certain of a successful outcome in any campaign in which he took part.

At the Gilsey house headquarters the Hearst managers are preparing for a whirlwind finish to the campaign. Between now and Saturday night Mr. Hearst will deliver two score or more speeches. Hurried trips will be made to several points up state, while the last of the week will be devoted to the wind-up in Greater New York and vicinity. With the thorough, systematic and business-like methods that have characterized their contest from its initial stages, the Hearst people undeniably are setting a fast pace that keeps the opposition hustling.

The preparations made for this week insure lots of entertainment and excitement for the voters, not only in this city but throughout the state. The republicans who so far have paid little attention to the spectacular or picturesque features have completed plans for a red fire and musical finish to provide an appropriate setting for the oratory of the spellbinders. Mr. Hughes will have some rivals for public attention in the persons of Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, Secretary of State Root, Speaker Cannon and several others who are to take a hand in the task of educating the masses.

Interest in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 29.—The most important mass meeting of the present campaign in Pennsylvania takes place in this city tonight with Senator Knox presiding and Attorney General Moody as the principal speaker. The participation of Mr. Moody in the state campaign is regarded by many as significant of the desire of the federal administration to aid in the election of the regular republican ticket. Mr. Moody's relations to President Roosevelt are so peculiar, his deference to the president in such matters so thoroughly understood, that his coming into Pennsylvania is generally regarded as meaning that the president is in sympathy with the regular ticket.

WIFE SAYS A VOTE FOR PALMER IS GROUND FOR DIVORCE

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 26, 1906.
 Editor Tribune:

I heard the following conversation today between a man and his wife (or rather his wife alone) on the political situation, and I thought it was good. She said your talk about being a republican makes me tired. Of course you are a republican and I want you to be where things are equal or nearly so, but in a case like this where you are voting for a man to represent your county as sheriff, how can any sane man hesitate a moment between Chris. Burns and Harry Palmer. I believe any woman whose husband (knowing the record of both men) voting for Palmer would be justified in seeking a divorce. Supposing Palmer was elected sheriff and there was a meeting of sheriffs of this state and Jockey

Palmer was called on to speak. He'd say any old time that this geezer can't tell them where to head in—See? Whey, it would make a laughing stock not only of La Crosse county but our city as well. No my dear, she said, in a case like this, throw your political opinions aside and vote for Chris. Burns, a man who looks like a man and acts like one at all times. A man whose worst enemy can't truthfully say a word against him.

PETER.

"REPUBLICAN VOTER" GOES BACK ON HARRY PALMER

West Salem, Wis., Oct. 24, 1906.
 Editor Bangor Independent:
 Bangor, Wis.

Dear Gesler:
 YOU ARE DOING THE PROPER THING in county politics and everybody knows you will fight it out to the last ditch. You have the APPROVAL of the BEST PEOPLE, republicans and democrats, ALL OVER THE COUNTY and I am sure that after election you may have the satisfaction of knowing that you were an important factor in bringing about A VICTORY FOR WHAT IS RIGHT.

Very truly yours,
 A REPUBLICAN VOTER.

MYSTERY OF TWENTY YEARS AGO WAS NEVER SOLVED

GOSHEN, Ind., Oct. 29.—The police arrested Mrs. Charles Hecocks, an alleged intimate of Fuller, as an accomplice to the supposed murder of Fuller's wife.
